Deo Volente Farms endorses Democratic gubernatorial candidate Phil Murphy

If it should be done it will be done.

These words exemplify Democratic gubernatorial candidate Phil Murphy's lifetime credo after putting himself first through Harvard University and then obtaining his M.B.A. from the Wharton School of the University Of Pennsylvania.

This academic excellence preceded Murphy's very successful career in finance. Subsequently, he was appointed as Ambassador to Germany by then President Obama.

In preparation for his gubernatorial run, Mr. Murphy launched New Way for New Jersey designed to explain his vision to make New Jersey better and to make its families healthier and more secure.

"Deo Volente Farms heartily endorses Murphy's gubernatorial aspirations, and we also enthusiastically endorse his stated commitment to the betterment of the New Jersey equine industry" said Mike Gulotta, Founder and CEO of Deo Volente Farms. As Phil Murphy categorically stated on Meadowlands Pace night on SNY, the official television home of the New York Mets & Jets: "Racing's best is yet to come" in response to an interview with commentator Gabe Prewitt.

That followed his winner's circle trophy presentation to the connections of 2017 Meadowlands Pace champion Huntsville.

Mr. Murphy also labeled the New Meadowlands as a "gem" following the entire evening spent at the Racetrack's signature event in the company of owner Jeff Gural and Deo Volente principals Mike Gulotta and Sue Agopian.

Also on hand that evening was Murphy's good friend and confidante, Former New Jersey Governor Richard Codey, an acknowledged "racing aficionado" who, among other examples of demonstrated support for the equine industry in New Jersey, was instrumental in bringing the thoroughbred Breeder's Cup to Monmouth Park in 2007.

Both Murphy and Codey have visited Deo Volente Farms in recent months.

Deo Volente Farms is an ardent supporter of the entire New Jersey equine industry and a dual breed participant standing the 2014 Hambletonian Champion Trixton while participating in the ownership of the international thoroughbred champion California Chrome. We are confident that Mr. Murphy's new way for New Jersey will indeed prove the right way to go for our equine industry and for all of New Jersey.

We urge our fellow horsemen to vigorously support the candidacy of Phil Murphy!
